was defeated on final passage.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I voted "no."

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I voted "no."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, when this bill was voted on this afternoon, several Senators voted "no" under a misapprehension. I desire at this time to take about two minutes to explain the provisions of this bill. This bill is designed for the purpose of preventing irresponsible candidates from filing nomination papers. I can give you an example, in one district where two members of the legislature were to be nominated, there were seventy-eight candidates filed, and among them was one of a notorious character in the district, the town drunk and in another case the rag-man of the district filed too. This was not only a joke, it cluttered the ballot, it cost the county in which it occurred many thousands of dollars to print the ballot. This occurs in many counties of the State, men who have no chance at all to be elected file nominating papers, sometimes men of the same name file against a legitimate candidate for the purpose of receiving money to be bought off. This bill provides, briefly, that when a candidate files for a minor office, when no compensation is paid, he pays five dollars to file his nominating papers. In the event that he does not receive ten per cent of the highest vote cast, he forfeits the five dollars. If he receives more than ten per cent the money is returned to him. If a legitimate candidate for public office at the primaries should receive more than ten per cent of the vote, or a legitimate candidate, this will prevent the filing of papers by many people merely as a joke. In the City of Pittsburgh, a man may become a candidate with one hundred signatures, and in the last election I believe there were seven candidates. This will not take any money nor cost anybody anything who is a legitimate candidate, because when he receives the required number of votes the money is returned. I think this will save thousands in printing, if it will prevent legitimate candidates from beng blackmailed or victimized for money to ask the other man to retire from the race. I think at the last Session this bill passed without a single solitary vote against it, but it was held up by the House at the very last minute. If we pass this bill now, we will be able to have the three necessary days in the Senate, and we are given assurance here that there will be harmony on it in the House. I sincerely hope those who vote today under a misapprehension will now vote "aye" on this bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

PRAYER

The Rev. C. G. Leatherman, Pastor of the Zion Lutheran Church, Hummelstown, Pa., offered the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, giver of every good and perfect gift, look in mercy upon us—suppliants today. Accept our praise and gratitude for Thy continued providence; give ear to our prayer—for we reach out empty hands each morning and Thou dost give us the sustenance of life. We lie down for rest each night and Thy protective care is about us. We fare forth each day to our tasks and Thou dost direct us and guide or make it possible that we be guided. For these we praise Thee and thank Thee. For moral and mental endowments; for cultural and spiritual knowledge we are deeply grateful; for positions of privilege, responsibility, service and honor we humbly bow our hearts in reverence.

May all Thy gifts to us be used to serve and benefit our fellowman and honor Thy Holy Name. Bless, counsel, inspire, guide the elect men of this Commonwealth assembled to legislate for this great people. Reveal to them wisdom that they may serve as unto Thee and devise such legislation as shall minister as for Thee. Endow each Assemblyman and Senator; the Speaker and the Governor with strength and grace for daily duties, so that remembering that they are the ministers of Thine in the state, they may say and do that which will meet divine approval and aid their fellow-citizens.

May the life and spirit of the Man of Galilee guide and inspire each of us to live and serve and help as friend to Him who chose to call man his friend and pardon his transgressions.

Guide us to Thee.
Inspire us by Thy Presence.
Vision before us Thy Work.
Enable us to do Thy Will.

For the honor of the Man of Galilee; for the help of the men for whom He died, Amen.

RESOLUTION

RESOLUTION No. 172

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 172, Printer's No. 1565.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1935.

Whereas, In the Fifteenth Ward of the City of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania there has been for many years an imperative need for additional recreational facilities by reason of its being a congested residential district peopled almost exclusively by a wage-earning class and

Whereas, The people of this section realizing this need and appreciating the fact that proper supervision of the activities of children and healthful recreation will tend to improve the children's morals as well as their health and thus give the promise of a cleaner and more wholesome citizenship in the years to come have repeatedly petitioned the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania to construct a swimming pool in their neighborhood and

Whereas It now appears that a majority of the Council of said City are convinced that this section should have a swimming pool and

Whereas The reason that such a swimming pool has not been constructed is because of the lack of funds and

Whereas The Congress of the United States by a recent Act gave to the President of the United States the power and administration of expending Four Billions Eight Hundred Million Dollars for public improvements as a means of alleviating unemployment and

Whereas It is believed that the construction of a swimming pool in the Fifteenth Ward of the City of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania would come within the purposes and intent of the Act of Congress providing for this huge expenditure of public funds therefore be it

Resolved That the Mayor and the council of the City of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania are hereby requested to petition the President of the United States to allocate out of the Four Billions Eight Hundred Million Dollars a sum sufficient for the construction of a swimming pool in the Fifteenth Ward of the City of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania and be it further

Resolved That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this Resolution to the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

RESOLUTION

ASSEMBLY TO RECONVENE IN SEPTEMBER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the information of the House I want to state that tomorrow after the morning session I will endeavor to introduce the following resolution:

"Resolved. (if the Senate concur), that when the House of Representatives adjourns on Friday, June 21, 1935, it reconvene on the first Monday of September, 1935, at 12 o'clock noon, and when the Senate adjourns on Friday, June 21, 1935, it reconvene on the first Monday of September, 1935, at 12 o'clock noon."

Resolved, That Concurrent Resolution, House Serial No. 235, which provides that this session of the General Assembly adjourns sine die, Friday, June 21, 1935, at 12 o'clock noon, be rescinded."

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, rise?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the purpose will be evident in a moment, for the purpose of making a statement. I do not ask for unanimous consent.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel that in view of the apparent assent of the House in the resolution which the gentleman from Cambria says he is going to introduce, that we might as well save him the time of waiting until tomorrow and dispose of the resolution right now, and I, therefore, ask that unanimous consent be given to the gentleman from Cambria to introduce his resolution now, and that a vote be taken upon it immediately.

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 19, 1935.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That when the House of Representatives adjourn on Friday, June 21st, 1935, it reconvene on the first Monday of September, 1935, at 12 o'clock noon, and when the Senate adjourn on Friday, June 21st, 1935, it reconvene on the first Monday of September, 1935, at 12 o'clock noon; and be it further

Resolved, That Concurrent Resolution, House Serial No. 235, which provides that this Session of the General Assembly adjourn sine die, Friday, June 21st, 1935, at 12 o'clock noon, be rescinded.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the reason I desired to give notice to the House was that there might be a period for consultation with the spokesmen for the Administration and for consultation between the majority and the minority leaders. The House has elected to pass upon this matter without consultation, and, therefore, very briefly I will submit the reason why I offered the resolution.

First of all, we will adjourn, knowing that we must come back into this House for another session. Everybody knows that. We also know that by the first of September there will be a number of measures in the same position as the document tax, and measures that will have to be cured of inherent infirmities inflicted upon them as a result of the hurry with which the House passed legislation.

We also know that within two months the financial situation will have cleared and it will be possible to view the tax necessities of the Commonwealth from some position of sanity.

You may jeer at the resolution, you may laugh at the resolution, but when you defeat it you will inflict upon this State two hundred thousand dollars of unnecessary expense.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I had not intended to say anything because I thought that the unofficial vote previously taken was so overwhelming that there wouldn't be any use of my saying anything but because of the very serious argument made by my friend from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, I think I should answer him in one or two points.

In the first place, the financial situation, I think, has been very materially clarified as far as the State is concerned by the opinion that was put upon the desks of the members the other day, that we could borrow temporarily moneys anticipating taxes, and that under a court decision the moneys so borrowed would not be considered as a debt. Therefore, if we can borrow up to twenty-five or thirty million dollars, instead of fifty million dollars as was suggested,—if we can borrow up to twenty-five or thirty million dollars in the first nine months of the next biennium, the budget is balanced and the whole fiscal problem of the Commonwealth at the present time is settled. What it may be a year hence I am unable to state because we do not know what the unemployment situation will be. Therefore, there is no need for the Legislature to continue in session and I do not think that the people want the Legislature to come back here in September. I think they have had enough of us within the last five or six months.

My colleague from Somerset, Mr. Schrock, showed me an editorial by Will Rogers yesterday. I am sorry he lost it and I am sorry I cannot remember the exact words, but he was expressing the belief that the people of California were thankful that California had gotten rid of the Legislature of its State and he said that if down in Washington they would only do the same thing that the people of the country would be better satisfied.

I was talking to some of the newspaper correspondents, legislative correspondents, men who observe the proceedings here day in and day out, and they certainly know something about public opinion and they are all unanimous in their opinion that the people of Pennsylvania want the Legislature to quit and go home. What the people of this Commonwealth want of the State Legislature is to be left alone, and we will go back on the road to recovery. Let us not do anything to extend this session or any other session. If we have to have a special session. let us meet it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was not adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER ON HOUSE BILL No. 2077

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the special order on third reading and final passage fixed for this time, House Bill No. 2077, Senate Bill No. 222, Printer's No. 555.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2077 (Senate Bill No. 222), entitled

An Act providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county city borough township school and poor purposes in counties of the second class and abolishing the existing board for the assessment and revising of taxes the department of assessors in cities of the second class and the city assessor in cities of the third class in such counties

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to,
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose Senate Bill No. 222, House Bill 2077, for the following reasons:

This bill is supposedly an economic measure for the county of Allegheny. It will undo the various assessors and various departments in the various towns and townships and one second class city.

We of the city of Pittsburgh feel that our department of assessors should not be taken away from us and that the city of Pittsburgh should continue to have its own assessment at the present time, for various reasons.

In the first place, in this bill they purport to save at least $90,000. We can save the citizens of Allegheny county $450,000 instead by supporting the McGinnis bill, Senate Bill No. 1242, which is now on the second reading calendar.

We substantiate the above mentioned $450,000 in the following manner:

The cost to Allegheny county for 1934 to assess all real estate property taxable in the city of Pittsburgh was $521,737.

To be deducted from that is the approximate cost to assess the personal property and the approximate cost to assess the machinery which amounted to $60,000.

The cost to Allegheny county to assess real estate only in the city of Pittsburgh is the difference or $461,737.

The cost to Allegheny county if the city furnishes to the county the assessments for tax purposes would be between $10,000 and $15,000. In other words, instead of taking away the city department the city can turn over its books to the county as the city now does for the school board and there will be a saving to the taxpayers of $461,737.

We come now to the personnel of the Allegheny county board.

The number of assessors, including the seven members of the Board for the Assessment and revision of taxes, employed full time by the County of Allegheny is 157.

The number of stenographers and clerks employed full time is 158.

The total personnel employed by Allegheny County full time is 315.

The number of special assessors employed 3 months at $5.00 per day is 105, or an average of 26 at full time.

The total average personnel employed by Allegheny County at full time is 341.

The above personnel is not protected by civil service.

The total expenditure for the salaries of the above Allegheny County Board for the assessment and revision of taxes on real estate and other taxables in 1934 was $732,309.01.

We now come to the personnel of the department of the Assessor in the city of Pittsburgh.

The number of stenographers and clerks employed full time is 27.

The number of assessors employed full time is 11.

The total personnel of the Department of Assessors employed full time, of which number 24 have civil service protection, is 38.

The total expenditure for the salaries for the Department of Assessors of the City of Pittsburgh personnel in 1934 was $95,219.36. The ratio of the personnel of the two bodies is 9 to 1. The ratio of salary expenditures of the two bodies is approximately 7½ to 1.

The total expenditure of Allegheny County for the Assessment and revision of taxes for 1934 was $841,511.29.

The total expenditure of the Department of Assessors of the city of Pittsburgh for 1934 was $104,468.82.

I am thoroughly sure that this gives you an idea of how very expensive the county of Allegheny's board has been.

There is also some difference between the county and the city assessment values. We do not know what the new board is going to do. If they accept the county, we of the city of Pittsburgh will lose close to $150,000,000 worth of various assessments. If they accept the city, which is unlikely, we still don't know what it is going to suffer.

Back in Pittsburgh we had a meeting some time ago. We had an open hearing and the school board represented by its counsel protested to such a system. They too fear that the school board and the city of Pittsburgh will lose by this new county board.

I therefore ask the members of the House to vote down Senate Bill 222 and await until the McGinnis Bill No. 1242 is on third reading tomorrow and pass that.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny Mr. Tronzo.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TRONZO. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Allegheny Mr. Tronzo, think that the interests of the taxpayers will be best served by maintaining the present system of two separate boards for the assessment and revision of taxes in the city of Pittsburgh and county of Allegheny.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, there are times when two boards can prove rather economical. In this particular case, I believe that the two boards would save the city and county hundreds of thousands of dollars. The city board has been under civil service for several years and has proven itself efficient at a very low cost to the city of Pittsburgh. Under this bill we just don't know what it it going to cost the city of Pittsburgh and if we judge from the past we feel it is going to be much more expensive than the present county board.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, isn't the city of Pittsburgh protected by the present Coyne bill regarding their assessments?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, that I don't know. We do not know whether that protection can be carried out under a single board.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, isn't the present Coyne bill, No. 222, identical with House Bill No. 871, which passed this House on April 1, 1935?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I can answer that by saying that I don't know.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, didn't the gentleman vote "aye" on House Bill No. 871 on April first?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I cannot answer that either.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, didn't the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo, vote "aye" on House Bill No. 993, which consolidated the Board of Assessment and Revision of taxes in the city of Scranton?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I do not know. I would have to check; I don't remember.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the first time I rose to my feet on the floor of this House in the early part of this session, I advocated governmental economy in the conduct of its business and I think that this Senate bill is a step in that direction. It is almost identical with House Bill No. 871 which passed this House by a vote of 129 to 60 on April 1, 1935. I might say for the benefit of the members of the House, that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo, according to the Legislative Journal voted "aye" on House Bill No. 871. The only difference between that bill and Senate Bill No. 222 is that Senate Bill No. 222 originally created a Board of nine and the salary was seven thousand dollars. In consultation with the sponsor of that bill, Senator Coyne, he agreed to insert the amendments of my bill in Senate Bill No. 222. Further than that, there was another amendment from Allegheny, which provides as follows on page eight and nine; where it says:

"The council of any city may in order to preserve the basis of valuation upon which taxes in such city have heretofore been levied and upon which the indebtedness of such city has been incurred or increased uniformly increase the valuation of all property in such city as certified to it by the board of assessment and revision of taxes by a fraction of such valuation to be determined by such council Provided That such council shall in no case increase any such valuations to an amount in excess of the actual fair value of the property in such city."

Mr. Tronzo well knows that that fully and amply protects the bonding power and protects the city of Pittsburgh.

I might say to the members of this House, and I speak for the majority of the members from Allegheny County, when I say it, when a hearing was held by the Legislative Committee in the city of Pittsburgh, the following organizations appeared in favor of this Bill:

Allegheny County Real Estate Board

Allegheny County Real Estate Owners and Taxpayers Leagues

Allied Board of Trades

Women's Council of Allegheny County

Allegheny County League of Women Voters

Nashville Economy League

Pittsburgh Building Owners and Managers' Association

Professor Marion K. McKay of the University of Pittsburgh, one of the men appointed by the Governor two years ago to study the economic conditions of this Commonwealth

The Tax Justice League of Pennsylvania

The Pittsburgh Real Estate Board

The only persons who appeared in opposition to this bill were the city officials of the city of Pittsburgh and a few of their friends. I say to the members of the House that I do not care whether this is a Republican bill or a Democrat bill because it bears Republican sponsorship, and in view of the pledges we have made for governmental economy, I ask you to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I can answer the gentleman by saying I presumed the fact that I voted for the Scranton bill, but the circumstances there were probably different.

The following are the taxes levied on the assessed valuations of each respective body for the City of Pittsburgh area:

County Real Estate Taxes in the City, ...$9,040,083.26

County Personal Property Taxes in the City, 1,557,646.76

In other words, the county's total taxes in the City of Pittsburgh were $10,577,730.02

Total City and School Taxes on Real Estate 31,051,501.93

The ratio of taxes levied in the city of Pittsburgh (both real estate and personal property) is as follows:

County of Allegheny 1 City of Pittsburgh 3 which is a ratio of 3 to 1.

The cost to assess real estate by the Allegheny County Board of Assessors in order to levy $10,577,730.02 of taxes in the City of Pittsburgh is $521,737.00, or it costs the taxpayers a little more than 5c of every dollar of tax levied to just assess the properties.

The cost to assess real estate by the City Board of Assessors in order to levy $31,051,501.93 of taxes in the City of Pittsburgh is $104,468.82

In other words, it costs the taxpayers a little more than three-tenths of one one cent of every dollars of tax levied to just assess the properties.

The County of Allegheny employs approximately two hundred persons at a cost of $521,737 to assess for a levy of $10,577,730.02 in the City of Pittsburgh area of the County.

The City of Pittsburgh employs thirty-eight persons at a cost of $104,468.82 to assess for a levy of $31,051,501.93.

In other words, the City Board of Assessors is directly responsible to City Council, which is the body doing the greater amount of business and at a far less cost to the taxpayers.

I therefore, feel for these reasons that we should vote down the Coyne bill.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have had from the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo, a galaxy of figures, most of which I could not gather had any connection with this bill.

As a member of this House from the city of Pittsburgh I feel that I should state to you and state to you very strongly, that the city taxes will be entirely protected under the terms of the amended bill. I do not understand the action of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo, in attempting to have a duplication in tax assessment, and as a member from Allegheny County and from the city of Pittsburgh I want to raise my voice to counteract his statement on the floor of this House, and I ask your support for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments were concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

APPROPRIATION BILL ON SECOND READING

Mr. TRONZO asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order House Bill No. 2848, Senate Bill No. 847, Printer's No. 726, on page 1 of today's calendar, appropriation bills on second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2848, (Senate Bill No. 847), entitled:

An Act making appropriations to the Trustees of the University of Pittsburgh for the General maintenance of and the purchase of apparatus and equipment for the University of Pittsburgh and for the maintenance of teaching facilities in hospitals for students in the School for Medicine

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same that the sum of one million six hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($1,650,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Trustees of the University of Pittsburgh for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five for the general maintenance of the University of Pittsburgh and the purchase of such apparatus and equipment as the Trustees may deem necessary for the best interests of the University of Pittsburgh including maintenance of teaching facilities in hospitals for students in the School of Medicine of the University of Pittsburgh including the Maternity Dispensary and other dispensaries

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 1, page 1, lines 4 and 5, by striking out the words and figures "one million six hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($1,650,000)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "one million one hundred eighty-eight thousand ($1,188,000)"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to oppose these amendments. Before stating my reasons for my opposition to the amendments, I want to state that I, as Chairman of the Investigating Committee of the University of Pittsburgh and the various members of that Committee did their duty impartially. I cast aside any sentiments that I may have had for the University of Pittsburgh of which I am an alumnus and proud of it. The Committee's report represents findings and conclusions based upon facts, and we have no apology to offer for the criticism which we have made of the University of Pittsburgh. We felt that the criticism was justified and deserved. However, we do not state in our report the many good things that the University of Pittsburgh is doing. We have no brief for the Board of Trustees; we have no brief for the Chancellor, particularly, but I say this, if you adopt these amendments you are not striking at the Chancellor, you are not striking at the Board of Trustees, but you are striking at the students of the University of Pittsburgh.

I can give you some figures. During the year of 1934-1935, 52 percent of the annual amount appropriated by this body was used by the University of Pittsburgh either for the purpose of helping students, either through scholarships or through aid. The total sum used by the University of Pittsburgh during this time for students' aid amounted to $594,000. The students accepting this aid numbered over 2000 out of a total registration of 10,000.

At the end of 1934-1935 over $250,000 remains unpaid to the University of Pittsburgh. I say, then, that if anyone wishes to vote for amendments of this kind for personal reasons or personal motives, and wants to strike at the Chancellor and wants to strike at the Board of Trustees they should not take this way of doing it, because you are not striking at the Board of Trustees but you are striking at the students. The University of Pittsburgh will be forced not only to cut its budget because of lack of appropriations but to cut off from its registration members of the faculty and to drop two thousand students from the roll this coming year, and I ask you to vote "no" on these amendments.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it was my pleasure to serve with Mr. Caputo and the other members of the Committee which was appointed to investigate the affairs at the University of Pittsburgh. I am happy to say that although we did make some recommendations I believe that the University of Pittsburgh will receive those recommendations in good faith, and as soon as the University can possibly do so, they will meet those recommendations into effect. I want be able to put those recommendations into effect. I want to say this, I think that this amendment will put us in the position of saying that we are not only investigating the University but we are trying through the Committee and through the report of the Committee to hold a whip over the head of the University.

There are two recommendations that we are particularly anxious about. They are the recommendations concerning the academic tenure and the recommendation concerning the change in the personnel. We have reliable information that the University is ready and willing to consult concerning those changes and I do feel that the University should be unhampered and that they will go along and make these changes of their own volition. I do feel in fairness to the Committee and to the report of the Committee which has been filed that the University should be left alone and that every opportunity should be given in order to make these changes and I ask you to vote "no" on these amendments.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, since the proposed amendments of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo, are to two sections of the act, I would ask that there be a division of the question. The one amendment is to reduce the appropriation contained in the bill to the same amount as has been received by the University of Pittsburgh in the past biennium. The second amendment is the amendment which would place into the bill the findings and the recommendations which have been suggested, I believe, by the committee, who have investigated the University of Pittsburgh. I therefore, ask that there be a decision on the question.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this apparent slash in the appropriation is really not a cut. It is the amount which is in accordance with the Governor's Budget and I ask the members of the House to vote "aye" on this amendment.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as far as the amendment pertaining to the amount approximates the item carried in the Governor's Budget, I can see no objection. I happened to be present at the last session of the Committee investigating the University of Pittsburgh, and both sides were quite willing that the amount contained in the Governor's Budget and the amount that had been appropriated at the last biennium should be the amount that should be carried in the bill. I cannot see how any serious objection can be made to the amendment now under consideration by the House.

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have no particular objection to this particular amendment.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when this Committee was voted upon, I mentioned something about the Susquehanna River and I move at this time that the amendments be put in the same place in the Susquehanna River.

The SPEAKER. The motion is out of order.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. JONES and Mr. KANE.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 6, by inserting after the word "dispensaries" the following: "Provided, that no part of said appropriation shall be payable until and unless (1) the tenure rule of 1916 for members of the faculty shall have been reestablished, (2) the Board of Trustees of the University of Pittsburgh shall take the necessary steps to amend the charter of said University so as to institute the following changes in respect to the appointment and constitution of the board: That fifteen members be chosen by the Board of Trustees, seven to be chosen by the alumni from its members, by the "Hare System" of proportional representation, three be chosen by members of the faculty of professorial rank from their own number, by the "Hare System" of proportional representation, and five be chosen by the Governor; that all of such members be appointed for terms of three years each, and that the Governor, the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh, and the Chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh shall be ex-officio members of the board, and (3) the salary of the Chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh shall have been reduced to an amount not in excess of eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000)"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, can an appropriation bill be amended with an amendment such as that which has just been read?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that it can.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I suggest that these various points be taken up separately.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be considered together as read.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the Chair to rule that we cannot vote separately upon the first provision and then upon the rest of the amendment?

The SPEAKER. We have voted on the appropriation. Now we are voting on the rest of the amendments.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the question divided so that I can vote separately, as I understand it, this is divided into two distinct and separate questions, first, the re-instatement of the tenure rule under the act of 1916, and, second the provision with regard to election of the board of trustees. I would like to ask that these two questions be voted upon separately. I am in favor of the first one and opposed to the second one.

The SPEAKER. The first amendment will be placed before the House for consideration.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there should not be much discussion on this provision because it is in line with the report of the committee investigation the University of Pittsburgh.

Mr. ZAPPALA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not going to speak on the subject very long. I just want to call to the attention of the members of the House the fact that the Committee appointed by the Speaker of this House to investigate the University of Pittsburgh, I feel, has done a good and clean job. They have come here with the report and have made certain recommendations and they say that it is discourteous on the part of the members of the House to come here now and try to change the report of this Committee. I do not think it is fair under the circumstances to hold this against the Pittsburgh University, nor do I think it is fair on the part of the gentleman from Allegheny to even try to attempt to say that the salary of Chancellor Bowman is entirely too high. For the benefit of the members of the House, let me say to you that when Chancellor Bowman came to Pittsburgh in—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Zappala, is not talking on the matter now under consideration of the House, under the Speaker's ruling.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. We have only one amendment now under consideration.

Mr. ZAPPALA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the investigating committee made certain recommendations and I ask the Republican and Democratic members of the House to vote down this amendment because there have already been made certain recommendations.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is point 3 in the report of the investigating committee. The report of the committee unanimously recommended the establishment of the academic tenure rule which had existed in the University of Pittsburgh. I ask for a roll call.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to call the attention of the House to the fact that this is an appropriation bill. The title does not include any notification to the effect that certain rules and regulations are being set down as to how this appropriation should be spent. It is a departure from the precedent which has been established in this Commonwealth by years of appropriating monies, to the effect that no regulatory measure should be included in this type of appropriation. The report of the committee has been filed and it has received quite a lot of publicity in the city of Pittsburgh and the county of Allegheny. I feel that the authorities of the University of Pittsburgh will heed the findings of the committee. I feel that there is no necessity whatsoever to include these regulatory measures in this appropriation bill and I ask the House to vote this particular amendment down.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, with reference to the amendment before you now and those which will follow, may I simply make this observation: This report was made public to this House on Monday night. We are just two days away from Monday. We want to be fair and we ought to give the University of Pittsburgh the right to make these changes without compelling them to make them. I simply ask that you give them the right to make these changes rather than to force them into making them. We ask that you give them that opportunity. I think that is fair play.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, what the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, has said, is true, but the University has not been fair in the past and we have no reason to believe that it will be fair in the future.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Eberharter, will state his point of order.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I submit that this amendment is out of order for the reason that the title does not show sufficient and does not include sufficient to give notice that the bill carries these provisions. Therefore, the amendment is out of order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair realizes that the gentleman from Allegheny raises a constitutional point of order, which under ordinary circumstances is always referred back to the members of the House, but the Chair feels that the question can be decided just as quickly by voting on the amendments as by voting on the constitution question just raised.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to withdraw my point of order just raised regarding the constitutionality of the amendments.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I dislike at this time to take the time of the House to raise any further question on these amendments, but as the point of order as to the constitutionality has been withdrawn, I do not think that we ought to pass this by so that later on we might be stopped from raising the question.

These amendments affect, I believe, the charter of a corporation created by the state, and therefore they could have no effect, even if they were inserted in the bill. It would be unconstitutional.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the first amendment?

The yeas and nays were require by Mr. TRONZO and Mr. HOOPES and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The second and third amendments will be placed before the House for consideration.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, provision two in the section on directors from the report filed by this committee is in this manner: There are fifteen to be elected from the Board of Trustees among themselves, seven by the alumni and three to be chosen by the faculty. The committee has suggested that ten be selected by the Alumni instead of seven. We have five by the Governor. We all know what has occurred to the University due to the fact that it is self perpetuating. There must be and there should be a change in the body.

We feel that the salary of the Chancellor should be reduced to an amount not in excess of twelve thousand dollars. I think that the Chancellor at the present time is receiving thirty-five thousand dollars a year minus a ten per cent reduction which can be taken away at any time. We feel that this is too enormous a salary for a University Chancellor, much more than the salary of the Governor of this Commonwealth, and probably the highest paid University Chancellor in the country.

Mr. ZAPPALA. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ZAPPALA. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo, attended Pittsburgh University?

Mr. TRONZO. I have, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

The second and third sections and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2 In addition to the appropriation made by section one of this act the sum of seven hundred eleven thousand three hundred fifty-seven dollars and ninety-four cents ($711,357.94) is hereby appropriated to the trustees of the University of Pittsburgh for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five for the payment of obligations incurred by such trustees for the general maintenance of the University including the purchase of apparatus and equipment and the maintenance of teaching facilities in hospitals for students in the School of Medicine of the University of Pittsburgh including the Maternity Dispensary and other dispensaries during the two fiscal years ending June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and which were not paid out of the appropriation for such purposes made to such trustees by the General Assembly at its regular session of one thousand nine hundred thirty-three because of insufficient revenues in the General Fund.

Any law to the contrary notwithstanding amounts payable to the trustees of the University of Pittsburgh out of this appropriation shall be paid as promptly after the effective date of this act as the revenues of the General Fund shall permit and for this purpose payments from this appropriation shall take precedence over payments from the appropriation made by section one of this act

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall be retroactive to June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five.

An Act making appropriations to the Trustees or the University of Pittsburgh for the General maintenance of and the purchase of apparatus and equipment for the University of Pittsburgh and for the maintenance of teaching facilities in hospitals for students in the School for Medicine.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the Chair is about to declare a recess until 3:30 P. M. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and declares a recess until 3:30 P. M.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 3:30 P. M.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Snyder will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I wish to state that I did not vote for the salary increase because it would be insincere on my part to have the bill that I have in the Committee on State Government, calling for a salary reduction, which is the second time I have had such a bill before the Legislature. I do not wish to be in the position of asking for other salaries to be reduced and mine to be increased.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. CAPUTO asked and obtained permission of the House for the Committee on Judiciary General to meet during the session of the House.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HORST. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HORST. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I call your attention to the fact that this afternoon there was laid upon your desks a copy of the preliminary report of the joint Legislative Committee to investigate public relief in Pennsylvania. This Committee has heard the reports of the county investigating body and such other witnesses as came before the Committee, and offered in brief its recommendations for some changes in the administration of relief, as are embodied in the report. We were unanimous in most of the recommendations. There was one point on which we were not in accord and that was on the matter of local control. You will find on page 7 the report of the majority of the committee and also a minority report offered by one of the members of the committee. I might say that there is a recommendation made in this report that consideration be given to two of the bills that passed through the Senate and which are now in the committees of the House, one being Senate Bill 154, Printer's No. 312, now in the Committee on Judiciary Special, and the other Senate Bill No. 751, now in the Committee on Judiciary General. We have no definite recommendations to make as to the specific provisions of these bills, but do recommend that the committee consider the bills and if they are to be acted upon, they should be reported out at once.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2871, Senate Bill No. 1232, Printer's No. 675, on page 12 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. WEISS,

The House resumed consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2871 (Senate Bill No. 1232), entitled:

An Act to amend section one and seven of the act approved the twelfth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (P. L. 603) entitled "An act concerning conditional sales and to make uniform the law relating thereto" as amended further defining and clarifying the status of goods to be affixed to the realty and outlining procedure in such cases

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss, what changes this bill makes in the present law?

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, this bill introduced by Senator Benjamin Thompson, of Westmoreland County was introduced to cure defects in the existing law, brought about by reason of a Supreme Court decision in a case which held that any machinery purchased under a conditional sales contract following the placing of a mortgage on some manufacturing plant or building under that Supreme Court decision was held to be a part of the freehold, and when execution on the foreclosure followed on the mortgage, that there was no right in the conditional vendor to remove any of the fixtures or machinery, regardless of how much the unpaid balance amounted to. This bill was introduced to cure that defect. The bill in its substance says this, that where there is a mortgage on any particular building, and subsequently there is a purchase of machinery under a conditional sales contract, and this contract is placed of record, that the machinery shall not become a part of the freehold, and there shall be a right of removal on the part of the conditional vendor.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that the large machine manufacturing corporations are interested in the passage of this bill?

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I do not know, but I do know that there are a lot of conditional vendors or contractors who refuse to permit the sale of any machinery under a conditional contract. They want cash for the machinery. I know a gentleman who was interested in the purchase of machinery to the extent of about $16,000 worth, and he does not have the cash. He says that the company will not sell it to him until he can pay the cash. This bill is intended to cure that defect.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, am I correct in saying that this bill changes the common law that has been in Pennsylvania for many years in order to aid the large machine manufacturing corporations?

Mr. WEISS. No, Mr. Speaker, I disagree with the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl. I want to read this for the benefit of the members of the House, to show that the decision of the Supreme Court in the recent Eatmor case is not in accordance with the policies and rulings of the United States Supreme Court. Let me quote a part of the decision: "Holt versus Henry, 232 U. S. 637 and Detroit Steel Cooperage Company versus Sisterville Brewing Company 233 U. S., 715, cited by appellant indicate that the Supreme Court of the United States has taken a view of controversies similar to the one in hand somewhat different from our own."

I say that I am in accord with those policies and I am in favor of the right of these manufacturers of machinery to be able to sell their machinery under a conditional sales contract.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, will the passage of this bill help lawyers who represent conditional sales vendors?

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, this bill will help business generally. It will help the purchasers of machinery as well as conditional vendors.

Mr. Speaker, at this time I would like to yield to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not quite sure why the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss, yielded the floor to me except that I can only substantiate what the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss, has said, and hope to nullify what the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, has said.

It stands to reason that if we are to have a conditional sales act in the state of Pennsylvania, and the Legislature has said that we shall have one, the act is of no validity unless it is workable. As the matter now stands, you cannot buy machinery under the conditional sales act. This bill simply amends our present law to allow machinery to be sold.

Now, if machinery is to be sold entirely for cash, just cannot be sold.

I might say that Mr. Weiss forgot to call the attention of the House to the last paragraph of the bill on page five. The bill provides that where the machinery is attached to the real estate, the person who has the contract must of course give notice to the mortgagee or any person interested in the real estate, and post a bond so that if the machinery is removed and the premises are damaged the bond will stand security for any damage that might accrue. Under the bill, as I see it, no one can be hurt and business may be expedited so that people may buy machinery under a conditional sales contract.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 28 (Annual Statement) Every society transacting business under this Act shall annually on or before the first day of March file with the Insurance Commissioner in such form as he may require a statement under oath of its President and Secretary or corresponding officers of its transactions for the calendar year ending December thirty-first preceding and of its condition and standing on that date and shall include therein all accrued liability under unpaid claims where notice was received by the society at its home office before the end of such calendar year No society shall be required to include in such report any claim or claims notice of which had not been received by the society at its home office before the end of such year It shall also furnish such other information as the Insurance Commissioner may deem necessary to a proper exhibit of its business and plan of working The Commissioner may at other times require any further statement he may deem necessary to be made relating to such society

Section 29 (Valuation Report) In addition to the annual report herein required each society shall annually report to the Commissioner a valuation of its benefit fund obligations in force on December thirty-first last preceding excluding those entered into within the year for which the report is filed in cases where the contributions for the first year in whole or in part are used for current expenses Such report of valuation shall show as contingent liabilities the present mid-year value of the promised benefits provided in the constitution and laws of such society under certificates then subject to valuation at not more than four per cent interest less such portion thereof as may have been assumed by other associations or companies and as contingent assets the present mid-year value at the same rate of interest of the future net contributions provided in its Constitution and laws as the same are in practice actually collected

In lieu of the above valuation any society at its option may show the net value of its benefit fund obligations subject to valuation at the rate of interest as hereinbefore provided and said net value when computed in the case of monthly contributions may be the mean of the terminal value for the end of the preceding and of the current certificate years from which said tabular values shall be deducted such portion thereof as may have been assumed by other associations or companies

Each valuation report shall be certified by a competent accountant or actuary or at the request and expense of the society verified by the actuary of the Department of Insurance of the home state of the society and shall be filed with the Insurance Commissioner on or before the first day of April succeeding the submission of the last preceding annual report

The minimum standard of valuation for death benefit fund obligations shall be the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality hereinbefore referred to or at the option of the society by any other standard table or a table based upon the society's own experience of at least twenty years and covering not less than one hundred thousand lives with an interest assumption of not more than four per cent

Every valuation report shall set forth clearly and fully the mortality and interest basis and the method of valuation Any society providing for disability benefits shall keep a separate account of the same in its said valuation report shall charge as a liability the balance to the credit of such fund or funds at the date of such valuation Where a combined contribution table is used by a society for both death and permanent and total disablity benefits the valuation may be of death benefit only and in such case a separate accounting shall not be required

A report of such valuation with such explanations as the society may deem advisable shall be printed and mailed to each beneficial member of the society not later than July first of each year or in lieu thereof may be published in the society's official paper and the issue containing the same mailed to each beneficial member of the society

Section 30 (Valuation Accumulation Basis) In lieu of the valuation hereinbefore required any society may value its certificates on a basis herein designated "accumulated basis" by crediting each member with the net amount contributed for each year and with interest at approximately the net rate earned and by charging him with his share of the losses for each year herein designated "cost of insurance" and carrying the balance if any to his credit The charge for the cost of insurance may be according to the actual experience of the society as applied to a table of mortality recognized by the law of this Commonwealth and shall take into consideration the amount at risk during each year which shall be the amount payable at death less the credit to the member

Unless specifically provided in its constitution or laws no charge shall be carried forward from the first valuation hereunder against any member for any past share of losses exceeding the contributions and credit If after the first valuation any member's share of losses for any year exceeds his credit including the contributions for the year the contributions shall be increased to cover his share of the losses

Any such excess share of losses chargeable to any member may be paid out of a fund or contributions especially created or required for such purpose Any member may transfer to any plan adopted by the society with net rates on which tabular reserves are maintained and on transfer shall be entitled to take such application to his credit as provided in the laws of the society Certificates issued re-rated or readjusted on a basis providing for adequate rates with adequate reserves to mature such certificates upon assumption for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this Commonwealth shall be valued on such basis herein designated the "tabular basis" Provided that if on the first valuation under this section a deficiency in reserve shall be shown for any such certificate the same shall be valued on the accumulation basis

Whenever in any society having members upon the tabular basis and upon the accumulation basis the total of all costs of insurance provided for any year shall be insufficient to meet the actual death and disability losses for the year the deficiency may be met for years from the available funds after setting aside all credits in the reserve or from increased contributions or by an increase in the number of assessments applied in the society as a whole or to classes of members as may be specified in its laws Savings from a lower amount of death losses may be returned in like manner as may be specified by its laws

If the laws of the society so provide the assets representing the reserves of any separate class of members may be carried separate for such class as if an independent society and the required reserve accumulation of such class so set apart shall not thereafter be merged with the assets of other classes of the society

A table showing the credits to individual members for each year and age of entry and showing opposite such credits the tabular reserve required in the whole life or other plan of insurance specified in the contract according to assumptions for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this Commonwealth and adopted by the society shall be filed by the society with each annual report and also be furnished to each member before July first of each year

In lieu of the aforesaid statement there may be furnished to each member within the same time a statement giving the credit for such member and giving the tabular reserve and level rate required for the transfer carrying out the plan of insurance specified in the contract No table or statement need be made or furnished where the reserves are maintained on the tabular basis For this purpose individual bookkeeping accounts for each member shall not be required and all calculations may be made by actuarial methods

Nothing herein contained shall prevent the maintenance of such surplus over and above the credits on the accumulation basis and the reserves on the tabular basis as any society may provide by or pursuant to its laws nor be construed as giving to the individual member any right or claim to any such reserve or credit other than in manner as expressed in its constitution and laws If the valuation of the certificates as hereinbefore provided shall show that the present value of future net contributions together with the admitted assets is less than the present value of the promised benefits and accrued liabilities such society shall either collect additional assessments or increase the rates of contribution from the members to meet such deficiency or classify its members according to the adequacy of the rates they are contributing and charge each class with its proportion of any deficiency disclosed by any such valuation

Section 31 (False Statements) Any person or officer member or examining physician of any society authorized to do business under this Act who shall knowingly or wilfully make any false or fraudulent statement or representation in or with the reference to any application for membership or for the purpose of obtaining money from or benefit in any society transacting business under this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days or more than one year in the discretion of the Court

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Gates, to explain the purpose of it.

Mr. GATES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, many members here are like myself, first year men. Before coming to the Legislature, we, as laymen, unfortunately, paid little attention to the important question of old age assistance, each of us paying strict attention to our own chosen work. Oh! yes, I know there was a group of loyal, sincere, earnest women in Armstrong county who were giving willingly of their time and energy to this work, and I took for granted that when some old person applied for assistance, after careful examination of the facts, the Board approved or rejected same, and if approved, the assistance was immediately forthcoming. However, after my people had shown their faith and confidence in me by selecting me as their representative to the General Assembly, and shortly after I was sworn in, I received a pitiful letter from an old person living in one of our towns pleading with me for help to keep him from going to the Poor House, and explaining that he had applied for old age assistance. I took this letter up with my colleague, Arnold Blumberg, who, years ago, sponsored this great humanitarian movement, and, acting upon his advice, I wrote to our local Board, found that this party was deserving but no money available, and I resolved that along with my desire to relieve real estate from school tax, and thus save the homes of our people, I would next center my efforts on the unfortunate old people.

A few days ago when the appropriation bill was presented for old age assistance, I listened to the very splendid appeal of Representative Hoopes for an increased amount, and even when Representative Cohen explained that to increase the appropriation would only be raising false hopes in the old people of our state, nevertheless I voted for the increase, hoping that in some legitimate manner we could work something out, feeling that party lines would be dropped and that unitedly we would stand on this question.

This bill is the result of many suggestions and it in no way adds any tax to our now overburdened corporations, and, thank God, it adds not one cent to the real estate tax, but each one of the members of this House who chooses to go to a ball game and spend 50c for a ticket will gladly pay an extra ten cents, when you know that it is for the relief of someone's old mother, man's best and most faithful earthly friend. This is not a selfish bill, as both my mother and father have passed on, but is drawn for the other fellow's mother and father.

I am sure that there is not a Republican on this side of the House that can dare vote against this bill and go back to his or her home and face the conditions in their particular district. This bill only puts a tax on all amusements on the Sabbath day and the fund that is raised goes exclusively for the old age assistance fund.

Mr. ZAPPALA. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Gates.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Gates, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GATES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ZAPPALA. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman from Armstrong to say that this money will go for the purpose of the old aged?

Mr. GATES. Mr. Speaker, the old age assistance fund, that is right.

Mr. ZAPPALA. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman show me the particular line in the bill, showing where this money goes?

Mr. GATES. Mr. Speaker, section fifteen which reads as follows: "All taxes, interest, fines, and penalties received, collected or recovered under the provisions of this act shall be used only for the purpose of providing old age assistance and for such purposes is hereby appropriated to the Department of Welfare."

Mr. ZAPPALA. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Gates.

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I will be very brief in my remarks in support of this bill. I believe that the bill now before the House will be the last opportunity that the members of this Legislature will have to accumulate much needed funds to adequately take care of the many aged who will qualify under the old age assistance act. I do not believe that there is any member of this House who does not realize and know that the present appropriation to the old age assistance fund will surely be exhausted before the end of this biennium, and I appeal to the members of the House to support this bill in the interest of the aged of this state, who cannot help themselves.

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2912, Senate Bill No. 1056, Printer's No. 674, on page 18 of today's calendar, bill on third reading, which was passed over in order.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2912 (Senate Bill No. 1056), entitled

An Act relating to certain sports on Sunday in cases where an admission is charged permitting certain sports on Sunday for which an admission is charged during certain hours providing for the licensing of exhibitions where an admission charge is made and changing the hours during which certain sports may be conducted staged and played where the electors are in favor of the same

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

MOTION TO PASS BILL IN ORDER

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as this bill is written, I think that the House should be against it. I think that this House stands for the principle that no man should be required to work seven days a week. I think that the bill should be passed over in its order so that it can be amended to harmonize with the Sunday movies bill and have a provision inserted in it that no man can be employed on Sunday who has worked more than five of the preceding six days. I move you, Mr. Speaker, that this bill be passed over in its order.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the nays appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for and seventy-three members having voted in the affirmative and seventy-six members having voted in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the information of the members of the House as to playing tennis, I want you to know that tennis is only played on certain days of the week, they do not play this game seven days a week. I do not want you to feel confused. This is only for an extension of the Sunday rule for tennis.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, the statement is made that the hours are changed for sports. I would like to interrogate someone as to what hours the sports have been changed to.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, our sports bill like the baseball bill or the movie bill stated that the hour would be after two o'clock. I would like to know what hours the sports are changed to. Do you advance the hours all day or what time?

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker after one o'clock, owing to the condition of daylight savings time in the city of Philadelphia.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, it advances the hour for sports one hour. All of the sports bills we have had in the House stated after two o'clock. This advances the time, as I understand it, one hour.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, on account of the daylight savings time. We just passed the polo bill providing for one o'clock. This bill provides for the same hour, after one o'clock according to standard time which means two o'clock daylight savings time.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

An Act authorizing cities of the third class to appropriate moneys out of general revenues to pay bonds and obligations issued by such cities for the payment of the costs of a public improvement which were to rest alone for their security upon payment of assessments for benefits

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Cities for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOOPES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Berks state the amendment he desires to make to this bill?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I did not make the motion to amend. I made it for further study.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not think that this bill should be returned for further study. It has passed the Senate. Similar bills have been before committees for study. It is now late in the session and a bill that goes back to committee may never come back to the House again. Therefore, I desire to oppose this motion.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Delaware, I am very frank to state that my purpose in making the motion was to put the bill back in committee so that it would not come back again. We have had at least four bills like this before various committees of the House during the session. We have killed all of them because they are vicious measures and I think this should go the same road.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2965 (Senate Bill No. 998), entitled

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk permit himself to be interrogated?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. on April 17 this year, which happened to be the birthday of my daughter, I was absent from the House after the first session of the House, and I direct the attention of the House to the fact that Mr. Turner, the gentleman from Delaware, made a statement with respect to another bill which I quote as follows:

"When the chairman of the Republican Steering Committee left this afternoon, he advised me that this bill was not to be acted upon this evening."

That remark referred to some bill other than the one concerning which I desire to make the statement. I left the House on that day in order to attend a birthday party in Philadelphia that evening to my daughter. It appears that I failed to vote upon House Bill No. 67 which is known as the "Equals rights" bill. I am not recorded as voting,—properly so because I was not here.

I want to state of record that had I been here I not only would have voted in favor of the bill but I would have spoken in its behalf. I want further to say of record that I have during past sessions of the Legislature from 1925 to and including the present date, always been in favor of equal rights for persons regardless of race or color, and those of my political opponents who seek to make capital out of the fact that I did not vote upon this particular bill are falsely making capital, because I have no apologies to make for not being here on that particular day. I am frank to repeat and reiterate that had I been here I would have done on this bill as I have done on past bills of a similar kind and character, not only voted for it but spoken in its behalf. I am frank to say now that I make this statement in order that there may be no question as to how I stand upon the question of equal rights for persons regardless of race or color.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman on the question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I too this evening have had called to my attention the fact that the official Journal of the House discloses that I am not recorded as voting on House Bill 67, known as the "equal rights" bill, the bill to which Mr. Witkin has just referred. I have racked my recollection to determine whether I was present on that day and voting. And I find that I am recorded as voting on that day on other bills. I am at a loss to understand why I am not recorded as voting on this particular bill, inasmuch as there was no debate on the bill and there were no nay votes recorded. Either I was present and voted or I was absent. I am not able frankly to tell what was in fact the case. I wish, however, for the purpose of the record to state to this House, that had I been present I would of course have voted "aye" on the "equal rights" bill just as I have consistently done, both by my vote and my voice, since the session of 1921. I make this statement in order that there shall be no question about my personal and official stand on all equal rights measures.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I rise on this question because ever since 1925, when I first came into this House, the greatest exponents of the equal rights bills, as they came up in this House, have been both Mr. Witkin and Mr. Blumberg. I feel that a great injustice has been done especially to Mr. Blumberg who was here on the occasion in question and who voted for this bill. I feel that it is an injustice that they should be deprived of the right of having their vote recorded as voting in favor of this bill. In every session of this House when these bills have come up they have been practically an eye sore to some of the people in this House, but nevertheless they have been aimed to give fair play to all of the people of Pennsylvania. If those who have championed the cause of these bills are to be deprived of the right and privilege of having their votes recorded, it seems to me that there is something unfair something very grievously in error.

I am not here to speak on this matter idly but I am here to speak on this matter because it savors of an injustice which will react against two men who have been the champions of this particular cause, if such an impression becomes spread all over the state of Pennsylvania.

In Philadelphia and in every section of Pennsylvania where my people have clamoured for the last twenty years for fair play and equal rights at the hands of the Legislative body of Pennsylvania, they have cherished the fact that Mort Witkin and Arnold Blumberg have been among the outstanding factors of that group, and I ask if there is anyway whereby justice can be done these two men in the eyes of all of the people of Pennsylvania, and if this House will not lay aside all politics because when this bill passed the other day there was no politics displayed. The Democrats and the Republicans alike voted for this bill, and then the crowning feature was when the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania affixed his signature to this bill over a protest or an attempt that was about to be made to destroy the effect of this bill.

Mr. Speaker, I again ask you, sir, if there is any way whereby justice can be done to these two men, and if so that the House will take such action.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and fellow members of the House, this bill has been considerably modified or rewritten in portions, and it is different from that which we discussed earlier in the week. There have also been changes apparently made in the names of the sponsors of the bill, unless the bill that I held this afternoon and which I could not find just now does not follow the same bill, or may not be the same bill. It seems to be a metamorphosis.

However, the members of the House should realize that this bill provides that the net receipts from alcoholic beverages in clubs may be as much as 50 per cent of the gross receipts of the club. This bill is one that refers continuously to such subjects as a hotel shall mean any reputable place, having stress on the word "reputable,"—a restaurant shall be a reputable place conducted by a person of good reputation, and so forth. This is very important, but the important and fundamental things to me is that this is a club license bill and gives a license for selling liquor at all times of the day and night at all hours and all days of the week, including Sundays, and also election day. It seems to me that it is not necessary for us to say much else to an intelligent and conscientious body than to point out this fundamental factor which I have just now given to you. It does say "election day," at least to the extent that it does not prohibit. It says that the sales of liquor can be made at all times. Here it is, on page six—

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Snyder, Mr. Surface, if he will yield for a moment in order that I may raise a question of parliamentary inquiry concerning a certain amendment that was made to this bill?

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker, I will be glad to yield.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Snyder yields to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the amendments that were made to this bill by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, provided on page six, line eleven, that the words after the word "Sunday" "or on any day on which a general, municipal, special or primary election is being held" be stricken from the bill. Those amendments were sent up to the desk.

The bill under the latest Printer's number, 1569, did not contain that amendment, and the gentleman is arguing upon the question of the right of a club to sell liquor on election days whereas this House went on record as striking out that portion of the bill. I want to know now whether or not we can consider this bill with the amendment as made by the gentlemman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, or whether we cannot. I would like to be advised by the Chair on that question.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia yield until the Chair has had an opportunity to get the official record to see whether or not the amendment is contained in the bill as stated by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin?

Mr. WITKIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, agree to withdraw the bill for the present until the official record can be examined and the members may know exactly what is in the bill?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

In the House of Representatives, June 19, 1935.

Whereas, Associations and corporations generally known as Co-operative Agricultural Associations or Corporations of Producers of Farm Products are directly or indirectly marketing to consumers of farm products in this Commonwealth an ever increasing proportion of such products produced by the farmers of this Commonwealth, and

Whereas, A substantial number of the citizens of this Commonwealth are directly interested in the management, operation and supervision of such associations or corporations as members thereof, and

Whereas, the general public of the Commonwealth has an interest in the management, operation and supervision of such associations or corporations by reason of the fact that a substantial and ever increasing proportion of the agricultural products sold to the general public for consumption are marketed through such associations or corporations, and

Whereas, it is said to be desirable that the present laws governing such associations or corporations be revised to provide for the more efficient management, operation and supervision of such associations or corporations in the interest of the members thereof and the general public, and

Whereas, certain legislation has been proposed and is now pending before the Legislature designed to revise the existing law relating to such associations or corporations and it is said to be desirable that legislation be enacted properly to revise the management, operation and supervision of such associations or corporations, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized and directed to appoint a committee of five members of the House of Representatives, whose duty it shall be to investigate the operation of existing laws relative to the management, operation and supervision of Co-operative Agricultural Associations or Corporations of Producers of Farm Products, and to determine what, if any, changes or revisions should be made in such laws properly to provide for such management, operation and supervision of said associations or corporations in the future, and

Resolved, That the committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives as early as possible either at this session, if feasible, or at the next special or general session of the House of Representatives, and

Resolved, That the said committee shall have the power to hold public or private hearings, and to audit the books and accounts of such Co-operative Agricultural Associations or Corporations of Producers of Farm Products as in the opinion of the committee it may deem necessary to effectuate the purpose of this Resolution and to effect the purpose of this Resolution the committee shall have the power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before it and to answer to such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the said committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records, or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the law of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution? Are there objections? The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

The resolution will be filed with the Clerk under the rules.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULES

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that Rule 84 be suspended for the specific purpose of considering the resolution just read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask what is there so pressing about this resolution that it cannot take, as you have throughout this entire session desired all resolutions to take, its normal course, send it to committee and if in proper form, and a proper resolution, report it out of committee and acted upon by this House?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, we have passed resolutions tonight without referring them to committee. That is the reason I asked that this be passed.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman to reply to the question, what is there so pressing that this particular resolution requires immediate consideration tonight?

Mr. RUTH. The resolution has been reported out of the Agricultural Committee and we would like to pass it this evening.

Mr. WITKIN. The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, has just stated that this resolution was reported out of the Agricultural Committee, is that correct? As I understand, Mr. Speaker, it was just introduced.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, may I be allowed to answer that question?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will be permitted to answer the question.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, this resolution was reported out of the Agricultural Committee.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I have just been advised that the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, is correct. As I understood the Chair, I believed that this was a resolution that was just introduced, and I believe the Chair so announced. If it came from Committee I do not object to the immediate consideration of this resolution. I would ask the Chair to advise me and reply to the question of whether or not it came from the committee, whether I am in error or whether the gentleman from Berks is in error.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will ask the gentleman from Erie when he first introduced this resolution.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, we reported that out of committee.

The SPEAKER. From what committee?

Mr. McCREARY. Out of the Agricultural Committee, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my objection.

The SPEAKER. There is no previous record of this resolution. This resolution is not endorsed as reported from a committee. It has no number and it does not show any evidence of having been referred to a committee.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I am still objecting.

The SPEAKER. There is no record on this resolution that it has ever been referred to any committee. What are the real facts? The Chair asks the gentleman from Erie when this resolution was referred to a committee?

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I do not know that it was referred to a committee. I was asked to introduce it this evening.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be passed over until the Chair has had an oportunity to check the record.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1755, Printer's No. 1569, on page 11 of today's calendar, bills on final passage, which was passed over.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1755, entitled

An Act to amend section two and section four hundred and eleven of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws fifteen one thousand nine hundred thirty-three one thousand nine hundred thirty-four) entitled "An act to regulate and restrain the sale importation and use of certain alcoholic beverages conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board the Department of Public Instruction other officers of the State government courts and district attorneys authorizing the establishment and operation of State stores for the sale of such beverages not for consumption on the premises and the granting of licenses subject to local option to sell such beverages for consumption on the premises forbidding importation or bringing of such beverages into the State except as herein provided prohibiting certain sales or practices in connections with and transactions in such beverages by licensees and others making disposition of the receipts from State stores and of license fees and imposing penalties" better defining the word "club" and permitting sales by clubs on Sundays and eliminating the prohibition against the maintenance of a bar

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and fellow-members of the House, it is for you to decide whether or not you want a bill that will permit the selling of all kinds of liquors at all times of the day and night, during all days of the week, Sunday inclusive, and also on election days. If so, you are at liberty to vote for this bill. If not, please believe me that this bill is not what you will want to vote for.

I wish you to notice, if you please, what a difference two little commas will make when this bill is punctuated. As it stands now, it says: "Liquor may be sold by licensees other than clubs only after seven o'clock antemeridian of any weekday and until two antemeridian of the following week day and shall not be sold by licensees other than clubs on Sunday or on any day on which a general municipal special or primary election is being held,"—let us read that again and put in the commas,—liquor may be sold,

This is not the time for anything facetious. This is important to us, and I want to read this to you: "Liquor may be sold by licensees, other than clubs." Now, this exempts them only after seven o'clock antemeridian of any week day and until two antemeridian of the following week day and shall not be sold by licensees other than clubs. Notice that, "other than clubs"; it exempts them. "On Sunday or on any day on which a general municipal special or primary election is being held."

I want to call your attention to the fact that this bill, while apparently small in volume is sponsored by our honored and respected lady of the House, and this bill is apparently the offspring of a bill that was sponsored by four of the stalwart gentlemen of this House, which reminds me of the old excuse of Adam when he said, "Lord, it was the lady that tempted me."

They put the responsibility of this bill back on the lady and their names are cancelled from it.

I wish to read as a part of my address a few lines from an editorial in the Harrisburg Patriot of yesterday:

The average person who agrees to have the Commonwealth in the liquor business at all, only because it is the lesser of the evils, is not so much concerned about the decrease in profits. Further, every sane person realizes that bootlegging existed during Prohibition just as it did before and since. No law will completely forestall the bootlegger.

But the "package goods' sales are more serious than the effect on State Store profits and bootlegging. Such sales means another step back to the old days. There was so much in that era of misery that on that ground alone, nothing suggestive of the "old days" should be carried over into the new.

This legislative proposal like that to allow the old-time drinking at the bar are just so many steps back to the days when the liquor business so sickened the people that they sought to outlaw it with Prohibition. To some persons there may be a social charm in the old saloon type, but there is also a menace in it which this State along with many others sought to avoid in the liquor legislative set-up following Prohibition repeal.

The farther away from the old order liquor control can be handled the lesser will be its damage to society. It is hard to believe that this demand that retailers sell liquor in packages for consumption off the premises comes from the consumer. He can obtain all the liquor he wants during State Store hours. If it must be obtained for medicinal purposes, the drug store supply is available.

This move may well be suspected as originating with the liquor interests who want to get more money out of the business and in this instance at the expense of the State Stores and the good order of society. Canada, so much touted by the American wets, would never think of tolerating such package sales in its system.

This bill is supposed to be much more pious, much more righteous in its amended form.

Now, we are getting away from the old order in this Sunday liquor business, and I beseech you, if you have children or grandchildren as I have, to protect them by giving them a vote that is in accordance with your own conscience.

There has been more questionable legislation offered in this session than in any other session of which I have knowledge, although, thank God, it did not pass by any manner of means. Let us show that we have consciences. Let us show that we believe in the Almighty establishing the destiny of mankind. Let us do our part by giving the bill the right kind of a vote which means "no."

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill that is now before you is drafted erroneously and I think it will not accomplish the purpose that the lady from Philadelphia has in mind.

The bill is dangerous for this particular reason: Should the Governor sign this bill last, then the requirements of not reducing the floor space and the number of chairs would be restored in the liquor control bill. If you will turn to page five of this bill, to the definition of "restaurant," you will find that it re-enacts the old law, and you will find that you will do just what you want to do. If you will turn to the definition of "hotel," and you enact this bill and the Governor signs this as the last bill, then you will restore the old law that you the other day voted to amend.

Now, members of the House, the words used with reference to clubs are the identical words that were used in a case that went to the Superior Court and the Supreme Court, that was decided against the clubs. Let that be the law but for God's sake do not put this in, which will upset everything.

Members of the House, let me say one more word to you. If clubs and if bars are not taken care of this session, I say the blame is solely that of the chairman of the Law and Order Committee.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the title of this bill does not agree with the body of the bill, and I move that it be recommitted to the committee on Law and Order, for the purpose of amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, may I request that you vote down this motion for recommital because this is a House Bill, and unless this bill is passed tonight and messaged over to the Senate, there will not be sufficient legislative days remaining to enact it into law. When the bill is again before you, I should like to point out the importance of final consideration of this bill tonight. This is a very important matter and therefore I ask you to defeat the motion and permit me to point out to you the importance of the bill at this time.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WITKIN and Mr. CONNER and were as follows:

On the question recurring,

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am informed that the errors in the bill may be corrected in the Senate. I hope they will be corrected in the Senate and with that information and with that hope and this seems the only chance apparently to help the clubs except by House Bill 2437, I ask every member of the House to vote "aye" on the bill.

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, inasmuch as I have pointed out to you that the bill is defective and does not contain the amendments that were supposed to be presented and is defective, I ask you to vote "no" on it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.
